Within one year, the institution must submit written documentation to the Commission addressing the following stipulations:

1. That the institution provide evidence that site-based supervisors are required to be trained and oriented to their supervisory role in a systematic manner.
2. That the Preliminary MS/SS teaching credential programs provide evidence that candidates are able to demonstrate their knowledge of digital literacies and the use of learning technologies as specified in the Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs) 3, 4, and 5.
3. That the Education Specialist Moderate/Severe credential program provide evidence that candidates acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to assess students in a comprehensive manner within the breadth of the credential authorization.
4. That the Education Specialist: Moderate/Severe credential program provide evidence that candidates demonstrate understanding of mandated considerations for augmentative and alternative communication technology for students with moderate/severe disabilities, including students with physical/orthopedic disabilities, other health impairments, deaf/blind, and multiple disabilities.

In addition:

- The institution's response to the preconditions is accepted.
- Notre Dame de Namur University is permitted to propose new credential programs for approval by the Committee on Accreditation.
- Notre Dame de Namur University continues in its assigned cohort on the schedule of accreditation activities as determined by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Should you or your staff have any questions relating to this action, you may address them to Cheryl Hickey, Administrator of Accreditation, at chickey@ctc.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Mary Vixie Sandy, Ed.D.
Executive Director
