150 E. 10th Street
Claremont, CA 91711-6160

Dear President Freund:

I am writing to inform you that on April 25, 2014, the Committee on Accreditation, on behalf of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, assigned the status of Accreditation with Stipulations to Claremont Graduate University and all of its credential programs.

Following are the stipulations to be met:

- The institution must provide evidence that a system has been implemented to monitor the credential recommendation process.
- The institution must create and implement a unit assessment and evaluation system that is articulated with the different program assessment processes to inform unit evaluation and improvement efforts.
- The institution must establish collaborative partnerships with intern and induction program stakeholders and ensure that the stakeholders are actively involved in the organization, coordination and governance of the general education and education specialist intern programs; the general education (MS and SS) induction program; and clear education specialist induction program.
- The university must develop and implement a uniform system that allows for training, orienting and evaluating district employed supervisors in the intern program.

On the basis of this decision, the institution is authorized to recommend candidates for the following Credentials:

- Multiple Subject Credential
  - Multiple Subject
  - Multiple Subject Intern
- Single Subject Credential
  - Single Subject
  - Single Subject Intern
- General Education (Multiple Subject/Single Subject) Induction
- Clear Education Specialist Induction

- Education Specialist Credentials
  - Preliminary Level I
Mild/Moderate Disabilities
  - Moderate/Severe Disabilities
  - Professional Level II
Mild/Moderate Disabilities
  - Moderate/Severe Disabilities
- Education Specialist Added Authorization
  - Autism Spectrum Disorders

In addition:

- The institution's response to the preconditions is accepted.
- Claremont Graduate University is permitted to propose new credential programs for approval by the Committee on Accreditation.
- Claremont Graduate University continues in its assigned cohort on the schedule of accreditation activities, subject to the continuation of the present schedule of accreditation activities by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Should you or your staff have any questions relating to this action, you may address them to Cheryl Hickey, Administrator of Accreditation, at (916) 322-0695.

The Commission and its staff are grateful to Claremont Graduate University for its commitment to the preparation of professional educators.

Sincerely,

Mary Vixie Sandy, Ed. D.
Executive Director
